About

Dr. Wan Renjie received his BEng degree in Network Engineering from the University of Electronic Science and Technology and his Ph.D. degree from the Interdisciplinary Graduate School of Nanyang Technological University in Singapore. His research interests include Computational photography, 3D vision, and AI security. From 2019 to 2020, he was a guest researcher at Peking University. From 2020 to 2021, he was a Wallenberg-NTU Presidential Postdoctoral Fellow supported by Wallenberg Foundation in Sweden and NTU. Dr. Wan has several publications in top journals and conferences (TPAMI, IJCV, TIP, CVPR, and ICCV). He was the recipient of the outstanding reviewer of ICCV 2019 and VCIP 2020 best paper award.

I have several opening positions for Ph.D. and RA. If you want to work with me in the future, please send your CV to my email.
